PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify Mr. Dorton's conditions of supervised release as follows:

18. The defendant shall provide a maximum of six urinalysis testings per month at the direction of his probation officer.

CAUSE

On August 30, 2005, Mr. Dorton tested positive for the presence of ecstasy. Once again on November 4, 2005, Mr. Dorton tested positive for the presence of cocaine.

Due to the Stephens ruling in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, it is respectfully requested the modification to Mr. Dorton's conditions of supervised release be approved. This will allow for continued urinalysis testing, which will hold Mr. Dorton accountable for his actions.

Respectfully submitted,

by
